What is the Multi-Party Interim Appeal Arbitration Arrangement (MPIA)?

- It is an alternative system for resolving WTO disputes that are appealed by a member in the absence of a functioning and staffed WTO Appellate Body.
- A group of 47 WTO members notified the organization with the intention to resort to using of this mechanism to arbitrate any WTO disputes among themselves which would otherwise be appealed to the non-functional WTO Appellate Body.
- The MPIA is likely to remain in place for as long as the WTO Appellate Body is not functioning.
- Any member can join the MPIA by notifying the WTO Dispute Settlement Body.

Who can use the MPIA?

- WTO members can resort to the use of the MPIA under Article 25 of the WTO Dispute Settlement Understanding.
- The MPIA embodies the WTO appellate review rules and in a dispute between members, it will supersede the previous appeal processes and also apply to future disputes between members.
